Broadway Revisited

Here is the story of Broadway published in this newspaper February, 1971. It is a study in community concern with guidance being given regarding the coming reconstruction of Broadway.

It came to pass that the least desirable of the two plans was adopted — and with it went some of the parking space for which Lemon Grove was famous.

Here's what was said early in 1971:

Every Broadway businessman, in the area between Olive and Kempf, should take the trouble to get full information from the County Road Department about the coming improvement project.

Several of those who are hesitant to approve the recommended improvement have not taken the trouble to get the facts, according to an informant in the Department.

A handful of property owners are slowing down the project by not only being delinquent in participating but they don't even take the trouble to inform themselves about the project they are being delinquent in.

One owner is objecting to parallel parking. Shoppers like diagonal parking better, is the plaint.

Howard Taylor, County Road Engineer, says succinctly, "There isn't going to be any diagonal parking on Broadway in Lemon Grove." To permit diagonal parking would be to reduce available parking space dramatically, he advises.

It would be nice to have all the shop-front parking that's wanted but it just can't be. Broadway, presently with the unenviable record of having the highest accident rate in the county for a comparable stretch, must get relief in order to encourage shoppers to the business section.

To deny the safety improvement for the benefit of more parking area would be asking shoppers to subject themselves to a high accident quotient for the benefit of merchants. Concerned shop owners do not want a dangerous thoroughfare but they need help to get the best improvement. If they only succeed in geting the facts known, they would have achieved some sort of a victory.

The Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring plans calling for low, green plants in the center isles. Center isles will be installed with paved centers as the alternate.

CoC plans also call for a maintained parking area. It is partly maintained now by good merchants. Dirty, pot-holed areas suggests merchant indifference.

Their plan calls for the street light standards being moved to the traffic control curbs. At present, they are hazards to shoppers.

Certainly, cost is a factor in the thinking of those who prefer to be delinquent. It will cost about $35,000 spread among all property owners to do the "first-class" job for the "second rate" job will not only encourage the continuation of the potholes in the parking and the hazardous location of the light standards, but it will deny residents the attractiveness of greenery down the center isles — an adornment which should help revive the business district.

Moreover, delinquent property owners will pay for a considerable part of a "first class" job even if they are able to obstruct the project into a "second choice" job. Regardless of which plan is finally adopted, part of it will be billed to property owners. Anticipating the possibility of the second choice plan, County Road Department may request the County Board of Supervisors to enforce a 1911 Improvement Act by which owners would pay for the traffic control strip between the road and parking areas, and the curbs and gutters attached thereto.Their rationale is that it is the responsibility of property owners to help control traffic to and from their property. That's a reasonable position, we think.

There it is. All the pressures for getting a community to improve itself. Like childbirth, these productions are slow and often painful. But they are necessary if there are delinquents.

For those who would accelerate the "first class" concept of the Broadway improvement, we suggest that you tell it to your favorite shopkeeper.

He, like the rest of us, wants you to keep on shopping here rather than to answer the call of the "wild gray goose" to faceless shopping centers.

And you, as a resident, want a business district of which you can be proud.

Broadway, as it is being restructured, is an improvement as far as safety is concerned. Many shoppers will return to the main street with a feeling of greater security.

But about half of the former parking spaces are gone forever. They have been converted to curbs and center islands.

It is a sad fact that an optional plan, one that could have been brought into being as a County Service Area, would have reduced parking by only five spaces. And County Engineers urged the alternate plan. The plan would have cost 44 property owners a total of $35,000. The pay-off would have been about $80.00 a year over 10 years. Sonka Brothers signed when it became evident that so much parking would be lost. But three major owners refused to go along. The signature of any one of the three would have put the alternate plan into effect.

Bob Russell, who was Chamber of Commerce president at the time, was walking the streets of Lemon Grove urging owners to sign petitions for the alternate plan. Numerically, he was successful. But it was front footage that counted. Russell even held night meetings to inform owners that it would be in their best interest to form the service district. The Chamber of Commerce held numerous meetings with the same purpose in view. But the three holdouts were adamant.

When the deadline came and the signatures totaled up, only those representing 50% had signed. 60% was needed. Owners of some of the smaller pieces of property lived out of state, and, try as they did, proponents couldn't get some of these to answer letters or phone calls.

It is a small degree of retribution that the three major property owners will suffer a parking loss in proportion to their size. And already, Russell, who worked unselfishly to get the alternate plan into the works, is now being referred to by some property owners as being responsible for its failure. There were others who worked at it from time-to-time, but it was Russell who was the ramrod.

How ironic and unfair it is for those who refused to be informed in 1971 to put the blame on him in 1973. Actually, one of the owners who is vociferous in his condemnation of Russell's action today is one of the three who refused to heed his guidance in 1971.

Area Nears Halfway In UW Drive

Lemon Grove has reached 47 per cent of its $11,190,000 United Way goal and Spring Valley reports 34 per cent of its $3,375 goal. These figures were reported at the second countywide United Way acvhievement meeting on November 7 at Vacation Village. San Diego countywide, the United Way campaign is at $3,644,383 or 52 per cent of the $7 million goal.

Both communities have excellent chances of making goal before the conclusion of the campaign on Nov. 28th, according to Robert Guest, of the Crocker National Bank in Lemon Grove, who is East County area chairman.

"Lemon Grove has raised $5,285 at this time, and a good campaign in the local school district should give us the boost we need," said community chairman Chuck Foster, who is branch manager of San Diego Trust & Savings Bank.

Spring Valley is now at $1,159 and needs an all-out effort to achieve goal. Acording to community co - chairman Mrs. Naomi Marshall, "We have suffered a setback with chairman Joe Comella being transferred to El Cajon. It means that we will have to work that much harder to reach our goal."

FedMart Opening LG Store

Grand opening of a new FedMart store in Lemon Grove is scheduled to occur at 10 a.m. today, according to Sol Price, president and chairman of the board of the locally operated chain.

The 44th unit of the FedMart chain will include a supermarket, a liquor store, a pharmacy, a housewares center, a car care division, toys, games and sporting goods, and other non-food items. In addition, customers will be afforded the use of a catalog order desk.

The 16,000 square foot store is located at the corner of Massachusetts and San Altos, just off Imperial. It was formerly the Los Altos shopping center, which FedMart purchased in October. Included in the renovation was Bradshaw's supermarket.

$19 Million Grossmont Hospital Expansion Wins Final Approval

Final approval has been given to a $19 million expansion at Grossmont Hospital which will raise the bed capacity from 204 to 320 while adding 13 more intensive care units.

The hospital district board of directors called for bids for Nov. 29. Ground breaking for the additional facility is expected in the third week of March, 1974, according to Ron Dahlgren, hospital administrator. Completion is expected in 42 months, or by the fall of 1977.

The addition, Dahlgren said, will be quake resistant in line with California state law, enacted earlier this year, and will be planned to sway with a tremor, much as bridges are built to sway in high winds.

New services will be provided, including better occupancy and more single care (private) rooms, leading to fuller use of the hospital, Dahlgren added. Surgical intensive care units will be increased from four to ten, while medical ICU will expand to 12 beds from the current five.

Included in the $19 million is a $70,000 interior decoration contract, awarded last week by the board to Richard George Wheeler and Associates, architects, of San Diego.

Board members also approved an innovative transportation service, suggested by the volunteers of the Grossmont Hospital Women's Auxiliary, whose members voted to purchase a 9-passenger van at a cost of $6,267.

The van will be used to transport patients and their families to their homes in the district area, on a basis of need. It will also serve as a shuttle service from the city bus stop to Grossmont's front door.

Vista La Mesa Decision Postponed Until Dec. 3

A decision on annexation of Vista La Mesa to the city of La Mesa has been posponed until Dec. 3 by the Local Agency Formation Commission so that staff members can study possible adverse affects upon the community.

In his report to the commission, LAFCO executive officer S. M. Schmidt said that, with annexation, the tax rate would increase 4.2 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

Vista La Mesa includes approximately 422.2 acres at the southern border of La Mesa, bounded by route 94. An annexation election has been scheduled for June 4, 1974. Should further delays in LAFCO action occur, the election would probably be postponed until November, 1974.

Schmidt said, in his report, that the average assessed valuation in Vista La Mesa is $1,660 per capita, while that of the City of La Mesa is $2,200.

Three sanitation districts would be affected by the annexation, including Spring Valley, Lemon Grove and Rolando. There would be no adverse affect on Spring Valley, Schmidt said, adding that any cost increase to Lemon Grove could be offset by a "nominal increase in service charges." Rolando's territory would be substantially decreased by annexation, he declared.

Schmidt's report also estimated that La Mesa would receive an additional $232,000 in revenue sharing funds, which is $32,000 more than that city has estimated additional services would cost.

If annexation should be approved by the residents of Vista La Mesa, it would take an added two months for certification by the California secretary of state, a proviso necessary under state law.

Should the annexation win voter and state approval, the Lemon Grove Fire District, which serves part of the Vista La Mesa area, would stand to lose $20,000 revenue annually.

Hansen Park Dedicated At Sweetwater Village

"I am with you in spirit, although I feel like I'm not too able."

With these words, Fred J. Hansen, 94-year-old pioneer agriculturist and sub-divider, Friday dedicated the park named in his honor at Sweetwater Village West, the first section of Rancho San Diego, a new town being developed in the foothills of Spring Valley.

Hansen, who came to the area in the 1920s, was instrumental in bringing Colorado and helped form the Otay River water to Spring Valley, Municipal Water District and the La Presa County Water District, later consolidated into the Otay district. He served as the first president of both districts.

Hansen engaged in avocado growing in the Mt. Helix-Calavo Gardens area, and in 1926, bought the Sweetwater Ranch and constructed lakes beneath Isham Springs. He is also credited with establishing the Spring Valley Sanitation District and has been a member of the San Diego County planning commission for 26 years.

Initially, Rancho San Diego is constructing 98 homes in Sweetwater Village West at the junction of Austin dr. and Sweetwater Springs blvd., adjacent to Monte Vista High School.

Rancho San Diego has a projected population of 53,000 wtihin 5,000 acres, 40 per cent of which has been committed to open space for recreational use and environmental preservation.

Hansen Park includes a recreation and meeting building, a swimming pool and deck lounging area, a children's play yard with equipment, picnic tables and benches and a basketball-volleyball court.

In addition to the park, recreational facilities at Rancho San Diego include Cottonwood Country Club, with two 18-hole golf courses, an equestrian center, man-made Cottonwood Lake with 15.5 acres of fresh water, and numerous hiking and biking trails.

School sites have been designated, streets and curbs are in and underground utilities are already installed, including telephone and cable TV for optional hookup.

Completion of the planned community is expected within 15 years.

School Board Holds Firm On Land Policy

By Win Bowles

Lemon Grove subdividers will be served notice that the school district will hold to a policy adopted Sept. 26, 1972, requiring a fee for new residential housing, the board of directors decided Tuesday night.

The board acted after superintendent Bob Sutton presented figures showing the district is at peak enrollment in all six elementary schools, with seven more students than the classrooms are designed to handle.

"We are not in any crisis," Sutton told the board, "but we are approaching a temporary crunch. In two or three years we expect 200 to 300 more students. We could handle them, but not at the level of education and services we now provide."

About 10 developers would be affected by the order, which is a basic need of $300 per dwelling unit in order to provide adequate facilities and services for new pupils.

The 1972 policy statement said, in part: "The district will provide no assurances... that school facilities will be available and adequate to meet the needs of the development unless the developer of the property agrees in advance (with appropriate security) to meet the financial needs . . . generated by the proposed development."

The developer of MacArthur Vista has deposited a $300 fee with the district, according to assistant superintendent Paul Reynolds. That development includes 78 condominium units. Reynolds added that the district can project 1,125 new single housing units either under construction or on the drawing boards within the district's limits.

Board member John Linn suggested that vacant classrooms in the two junior high schools (there are some 161 seats) could be utilized in an emergency for sixth grade pupils, thereby opening up the elementary facilities. Sutton objected that the plan would not provide the level of education now enjoyed by sixth graders.

Board chairman James Dorman said the directors should "reassess our position to indicate that no facilities are available to accommodate new students," and that the district should negotiate with developers for a fee.

Sutton said the district has ordered thermostats lowered to 68 degrees and vehicles to observe a 50 mile-per-hour speed limit, to conserve energy supplies. Because of an upswing in vandalism this school year, he added, the district is reluctant to cut down on security lighting.

Bus mileage is down 20 per cent over last year, Reynolds said, projecting gasoline supplies as adequate through February by contracts with suppliers.

Thief Beats Victim, Steals $100

An armed robber bludgeoned him 10 times on the head before escaping with $100 in receipts, Ben Hur service station attendant Charles K. Burt told sheriff's deputies early Monday.

Burt said he was leaving the restroom about 1 a.m. when he was confronted by a male Negro, about 5 foot 10 inches tall and weighing 150 pounds, with an exaggerated African hairdo. Burt reported he was pushed back into the restroom where he was beaten and robbed.

Burt told Deputy F. C. Adams that about 11:30 p.m. Sunday, the suspected robber had approached him and asked if any jobs were available. When told no, the suspect drove off in a Ford van, light blue and white with chrome rims and large striped white wall tires, Burt asserted.

Adams reported that Burt was struck with a cylindrical shaped metal object, possibly a flashlight. The service station attendant was treated for a head laceration at Grossmont Hospital emergency room.

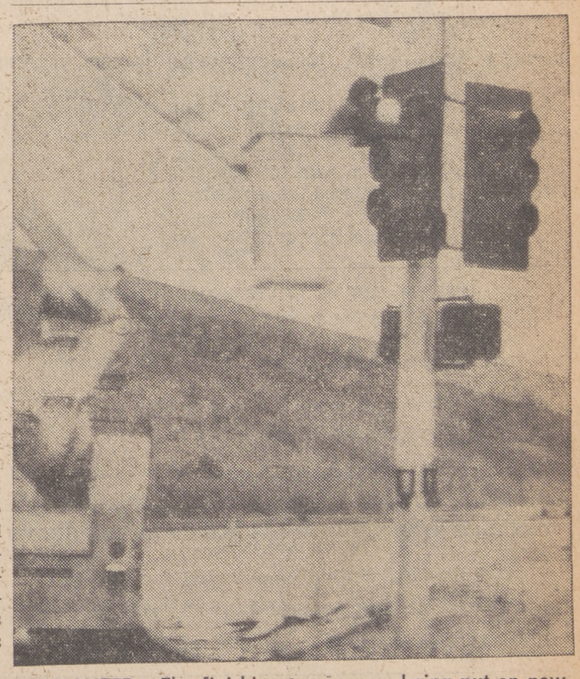
Fire Election is 40%

A 40% vote was cast in Lemon Grove's Fire Protection District election last week.

There are 10,032 registered voters in the District. 4,022 votes were cast. Bill Wardwell got 2,683; Dennis Moreno got 1,339, giving the winner, the incumbent, a 2-1 margin.



SIGNALIZED — The finishing touches are being put on new signal lights at the intersection of Sweewater Springs and Jamacha roads by traffic signal technician Hugh Wood of the county roads department. Traffic volume at the intersection demanded installation of the signals, which cost about $30,000 and took 60 days to erect and connect. The five-phase signals, with controlled left turn indicators and lanes, were turned on Tuesday at 1 p.m. Arrow Electric of San Diego was the contractor.

Padres Get Beckert, Still Seek New Owner

The San Diego Padres this week acquired All-Star second baseman Glenn Beckert from the Chicago Cubs, in exchange for outfielder Jerry Morales.

In addition, the Padres received minor league infielder Bob Fenwick from the Cubs.

The announcement was made Monday at the regular weekly meeting of Sportscasters/Sportswriters Assn. at 7 Seas-Hyatt House by Peter Bavasi, Padres general manager.

"Now we have to acquire an owner," he added.

Beckert, 33, was named to the National League All-Star Team in 1969, 1970, 1971 and 1972. He won the "Golden Glove Award" as the top fielding second baseman in the National League in 1968.

He is expected to fill the Padres' need for an experienced second baseman.

Beckert, who spent his entire nine-year major league career with the Cubs, hit .255 in 114 games last season.

The right-hand hitting Beckert has a major league career average of .284. His best season was 1971 when he hit .342.

Fenwick, 27, played most of last season in the American Association where he combined to hit .286 with Tulsa, Denver, and Wichita.

Morales, an 8th round expansion draft selection by the Padres, hit .281 in 122 games with San Diego in 1973.

Beckert and Fenwick bring to seven the number of new players acquired by the Padres since the end of the 1973 season.

Left-hand hitting outfielder/first baseman Matty Alou was purchased from the St. Louis Cardinals on October 24.

Bobby Tolan, left-hand hitting outfielder, and Dave Tomlin, a left-hand reliever, were acquired from Cincinnati in a deal Novemer 9th which sent San Diego right-hander Clay Kirby to the Reds.

If the season opened this week and if the Padres were still a San Diego club, the batting order could look like this:

Grubb, Beckert, Roberts, McCovey, Tolan (or Lee), Kendall, Hernandez, and the pitcher.

The scraps are open to the public.

Matadors Can Win Title With Tie-or-Better Friday

By Bill Ott, Jr.

LAKESIDE — Mt. Miguel overcame a fired-up El Capitan Vaquero team and some questionable officiating to drop the Vaqueros 7-3 and clinch a CIF playoff berth in football action Friday night. It enabled the Matadors to hold on to first place going into tomorrow night's finale against arch-rival Monte Vista. A tie would give the Mats the league title.

While the Matadors dominatated the game offensively, it was their tough defense that stopped El Capitan drives and preserved the come-from-behind win.

The Matadors moved the ball well in between the 20 yard lines, but the offense broke down near paydirt. They managed to score once when Tom Gallagher blasted seven yards for a touchdown late in the third period to overcome a 3-0 Vaquero lead climaxing a nine-play, 34 yard drive.

The defensive line of the Matadors enjoyed a fine evening. In 30 rushing attempts the Vaqueros managed just 61 yards. El Cap's Art Preston, a big gainer in past games, managed only 35 yards on 18 carries.

Monarchs Toppled By Sultans 16-9

SPRING VALLEY—A touchdown pass with just 11 seconds on the clock gave the onds on the clock gave the Santana Sultans a 16-9 win over the Monte Vista Monarchs in Grossmont League action Friday night on Monarch turf. The Sultans are in third place with playoff hopes.

Monte Vista, now 2-4 in league play, topped the Sultans in statistics, but the stats proved nothing when George Cartwright tossed a pass to Jim Arrollado on a third and 18 situation from the Monarch 31 to break the 9-9 tie.

The contest was a big disappointment for the Monarchs who close the season tomorrow night against first place Mt. Miguel. Trailing 9-0 at the end of the first quarter the Monarchs got on the scoreboard when Steve Perdue hit Phil Vasquez with a 17-yard scoring pass.

In the statistics column the Monarchs had 15 first downs while Santana collected just 10. The Monarchs had 102 rushing and 154 yards passing, and held Santana to 95 and 111 yards.

World Soccer Battle

A soccer battle between San Diegans and the world looms Saturday at 3 p.m. in Aztec Bowl as San Diego State hosts national collegiate power UCLA.

Aztec coach George Logan said his local talent will have their hands full against a UCLA team which, in his words, could represent the United Nations.

"They only have two Americans on the team," he said. "UCLA recruits heavily around the world for soccer players, while we recruit mainly San Diego talent."

Aztecs Game at Fresno May Put Lock on Title

Only Fresno State stands in the way of San Diego State U. and a fourth Pacific Coast Athletic Assn. football championship in five years for the Aztecs when the teams meet Saturday night at 7:30 p.m. in Fresno. It will be broadcast over Radio KFMB (760) with Ron Reina and Mike Meagher calling the action.

Fresno State (1-8 and 1-2 in PCAA) is struggling this season. The Bulldogs have scored just 88 points in nine games and have given up 218.

Last week Fresno State was stopped by Pacific, 42-0 as the Bulldogs gained just two yards net rushing and 60 yards passing for a total offense of 62 yards. On the other hand, Pacific gained 391 yards rushing and 62 passing on nine attempts.

San Diego State kept its PCAA title hopes alive with a 17-2 win over Long Beach State. Aztec quarterback Jesse Freitas completed 22 of 34 passes for 260 yards.

Freitas remains the No. 1 passer in the nation this week with a completion average of 19.0. He has hit 152 of 245 passes for 1919 yards. His completion percentage of .620 is also the tops in the nation and he trails only Danny White of Arizona State in total offense.

Despite the impressive Aztec statistics, San Diego coach Claude Gilbert was not happy with his team's play against Long Beach. "We played very poorly," Gilbert said. "We've been up and down all season. We had good opportunities to score, but the tempo just wasn't there for a consistent offense. We just don't play up to our potential.

Valley Mesa Girls' Nine Take Three

Valley Mesa team played the Lemon Grove girls at Lemon Grove Thursday and came away with an 8-5 victory. Teri Featheringill handled the pitching chores and had 6 strike-outs.

Saturday the Valley Mesa girls were again on the winning side of the ledger, defeating Chula Vista II by the score of 7-3. Donna Leyva pitched for the Valley Mesa team. Laura Autry turned in an unassisted double-play. Judy Rathert had the highest defensive rating followed by Patty Alter.

Sunday at Chula Vista, the Valley Mesa team defeated South Bay 2-1. Teri Featheringill pitched and allowed only one hit. Valley Mesa scored first in the top of the fourth with a double by Margaret Armer. South Bay came back and tied it up in the bottom of the fifth. In the top of the seventh Valley Mesa came through with the tie-breaking run and then held S.B. for the victory. The win also gave Valley Mesa sole possession of second place in the District II standings.

Southwestern's New Learning Center to Open

Construction of the 20,000 square foot Learning Resource Center is now in the final stages and is scheduled to open for use by the spring semester, 1974, according to Chester S. DeVore, Superintendent / President of Southwestern College. The $743,743 building is being constructed by use of federal and state funds.

The Center contains a variety of electronic aids designed to enhance the educational environment of both the instructor and the student. It will not only increase the carrels (individual listening stations) from 40 to 130, but will permit use of closed circuit TV with twelve receivers installed for viewing instructional programs.

As of March 1973, 341,843 Vietnam-era veterans were receiving disability compensation from the Veterans Administration. About half of these are actively searching for jobs.

Tennis Club Open House Set For Weekend

El Cajon's new Parkway Tennis Club has set its Grand Opening and Open House for Friday, Saturday and Sunday this week.

The public is invited to visit the new club and play on the courts free for one hour but telephone court reservation must be made in advance.

Bob Ray was named pro and general manager of the club, by Burton Jones, PTC owner. Ray moves to Parkway after over five years as pro at Morley Field in San Diego.

According to Jones, there are ten courts plus clubhouse and shower and locker facilities. Lighting will be one-third brighter than any of the newest lighted courts in the area. Future expansion, already approved by the San Diego County Planning Commission, will permit additional courts. These are expected to be added in about one year.

A feature of the Parkway Tennis Club is that players will be able to reserve courts on a time basis in advance.

Membership dues will be moderate and court fees will be charged at varying rates.

Toreros Seek More Records Against Loyola

A record-shattering U. of San Diego offense, which has already broken or tied 39 school marks this season, takes its balanced running and passing show to El Camino Stadium Sunday afternoon when the Toreros visit Loyola U.

It will be Loyola's homecoming and the final 1973 appearance of the Lions.

USD enters Sunday's contest with a season record of 7-1-1 while Loyola is 1-6. The Toreros are unbeaten since an opening game loss and Loyola hasn't won since a first game victory.

The San Diegans rolled up 534 yards total offense in moving to a 56-20 decision over United States International U. last week. Included in that figure were 390 yards passing and 144 rushing.

In Loyola, USD faces a team it has beaten only once in four previous tries.

Recharged Chargers Meet Revitlaized Saints Sunday

One thing's certain. The New Orleans Saints-San Diego Chargers game won't be telecast here. There were more than 10,000 tickets available as the 48-hour deadline neared.

That is another good reason for going to the Stadium Sunday at 1 p.m. to see two exciting teams mix it.

Both teams have been revitalized. Ron Waller has put the charge back into San Diego's offense and the Saints, under new coach John North, have won four of their last six games.

It will be the first NFL game between the two teams. In pre-season, the Chargers lead the Saints 3-1. At New Orleans, in 1972, the Chargers won 16-14 on a last-minute 8-yard field goal by Bill McClard—the same McClard who will be kicking for the Saints Sunday.

Quarterback Archie Manning and receiver Jubilee Dunbar will be among the Saints who come marching in Sunday.

The Chargers lost to Denver 30-19 before 51,034 Sunday but fans saw a conglomeration of new offensive sets. The first play, a pass thrown by receiver Don Holliday, turned into an interception disaster and a quick seven points for Denver. However, the Chargers performed remarkably well for three days of practice with the new offense. For all their spreads, stacks and motions, they did not have a single offside or motion penalty nor offense fumble.

"I was pleased with the way the players took to the new offense," said Ron Waller, the Chargers new coach. "There'll be more such things in the future."

Saturday, the Chargers hold a free junior football clinic at the Stadium at 10 a.m. Waller, his staff and players will instruct and give autographs.

Johnny Unitas has been deactivated due to a sore shoulder. Waller said he may alternate quarterbacks Sunday—including Unitas if he is needed.

Gulls Stop Losing; Home for Two Games

The San Diego Gulls have cut their playing roster to 20 players. Rookie defenseman Gary Pozzo has been sent to Ft. Wayne of the International League, on loan.

Also on loan to an IHL club is second year right wing Nels Venerus. He will report to the Dayton Gems.

Earlier, right wing Bob Currier was sent to the Tulsa Oilers of the Central Hockey League.

The Gulls finally broke the road jinx that hounded the team the first seven games on the road. They turned things around Saturday in Seattle with an exciting 2-1 victory over the Totems.

Sunday, while they didn't win, they didn't lose either. They came from behind 2-4 to tie for an overtime period. There was no scoring and the game went into the books as a 4-4 tie — the first overtime game the Gulls did not lose.

Carrying their two-game unbeaten streak, the Gulls take to the ice tonight at the Sports Arena against the Denver Spurs. After a day off they have a go Saturday night against the Portland Bucks. At the close of the Bucks game, all fans will have a chance to win a turkey in a Thanksgiving Turkey Shoot sponsored by Big Bear Markets. The night will also mark the Gulls 7th birthday as a member of the Western Hockey League.

Faceoff for both games is 8 p.m.

Q Pro Player Booked For Father-Son Event

Basketball will be on the menu for Spring Valley's Avondale school's Fourth annual Father-Son banquet to be held in the school's auditorium Tuesday at six o'clock, according to Gary Thomas, publicity chairman for the event.

A member of the San Diego Conquistadors will be on hand to talk, show films and distribute some gifts.

A catered dinner will be served.

Hafey-Olivares Scrap Tops Coliseum Card

The first card of Mickey Davies' once-a-week boxing shows produced a covey of heavyweights Friday night.

For this week he did a 180 degree turn and has a featherweight match. But he has the classiest featherweight of them all — Irish Art Hafey—going against Jose Olivares of Guadalajara.

Last week, when Jerry Quarry was cut on the chin in a workout, Davies obtained the good services of the California State Heavyweight champ—Howard K.O. Smith. Smith won his title from Irish Jack O'Halloran. Smith won a unanimous decision over Steve Carter, of Oakland, in last week's main bout. Smith is recovering from rib injuries suffered recently and though he won decisively, he didn't show championship capabilities. Smith has a 15-1 record with 10 ko's to his credit.

Friday's first heavyweight bout didn't last long. Mike Weaver, of Pomona ko'd Bob Swoopes of Oakland in 1:52 of the first round after a flurry of shots, accented by a good right cross, cut Swoopes' right eye.

The second bout ended in a tko. Lightheavy Jimmy Jackson of Oakland was proclaimed winner over Chuck Zellers of Los Angeles in the fifth round of a scheduled six round fight. In the process of losing, Zellers' left eye was gashed.

In the semi-main event Hilda Silva of San Diego took a unanimous decision from Al Stankie of Los Angeles in a hard-fought 10 rounder. Stankie could have won but he allowed Silva to be the aggressor throughout.

Friday's Card

Friday, in a companion 10-round featherweight scrap to the Hafey-Olivares 10-round headliner, Ad Zapanta, Philippines (13-3-1) is rematched with veteran Jose Valdez, Tijuana. In September in the Coliseum, Zapanta rallied to stop Valdez in the 8th round after being behind on points.

Coming up on weekly Coliseum shows are: Nov. 23—Renato Garcia, Chile, vs. David Love, San Diego, in a middleweight scrap, Garcia is unbeaten.

Headlining the Nov. 30 show will be world rated featherweight Bobby Chacon, Los Angeles.

Mother Goose Parades Sunday in El Cajon

NOT MOTHER GOOSE—But she'll lead the annual parade sophomore from Granite Hills High School. Sunday in El Cajon. She's Lynette Elston, a 15-year-old

Marching bands from Mt. Miguel, Monte Vista and Helix High Schools will be an integral part of this year's 27th Annual Mother Goose Parade, which begins at 2 p.m. Sunday in El Cajon.

The three bands will join in a 90-minute, 3-mile spectacular which has Mickey and Minnie Mouse from Disneyland serving as grand marshals, plus floats, bands, horses, clowns, pretty girls, TV personalities and characters from the land of Mother Goose and the world of make believe.

Lynnette Elston, a 15-year-old Granite Hills High School sophomore, will reign over the parade, which begins at Madison and Magnolia, parades down Magnolia to Main street, wends its way east on Main to Second, and turns on Second to the dispersal point at Madison.

Some 45,000 spectators are expected to line the route of march for the event, which will be led by Mother Goose herself. The parade is presented yearly by the Mother Goose Parade Association, a non-profit organization.

Two Seized In S.V. Apartment

Two San Diegans are in custody following a break-in at a Spring Valley apartment early last Monday, sheriff's deputies have reported.

Thomas A. Eiter, 25, and Fred E. Brewer, 24, are charged with burglary and possession of marijuana after they were picked up inside the residence of Pamela Joy Innes-Brown, 3619 S. Bonita st., deputies said.

According to the department report, Eiter and Brewer broke a window to gain entrance to the apartment. At 4:30 a.m. Monday, deputies and California Highway patrolmen surrounded the building after a complaint had been called in to the Sheriff's Station in Lemon Grove.

The men, the report declared, were found to be under the influence of marijuana when they were seized inside the apartment. Apparently, the two were acquainted with Miss Innes-Brown, who was not at home at the time of the incident.

Stereo Stolen

Stereo equipment worth $540 was stolen from the home of Noma Weber, 1622 Woodrow, Lemon Grove, in a daylight burglary last Thursday, Mrs. Weber reported to the Lemon Grove Sheriff's Station.

Good Fishing At Salton Sea

Salton Sea, in Imperial and Riverside counties, still provides some of the best fishing in southern California, according to the State Department of Parks and Recreation. Anglers are catching large numbers of corvina, sargo, and gulf croaker. One angler recently caught a 24-pound corvina; the average size is 5 to 7 pounds.

Salton Sea State Recreation Area becomes a haven for fishermen, boaters, and campers this time of year. Area Manager Pat Watkins reports that, during October, more than a thousand people each weekend camped near the sea shore in the recreation area. The weather is ideal, he said, through November, with temperatures in the 70's and 80's; and fishing and camping always remains popular through the winter and spring.

Summer and Smoke To Open At Globe

The inner-conflict between romantic notions and high ideals of a young woman ends in disillusionment in the Tennessee Williams drama "Summer and Smoke." Self-impelled frustration and torment keep the love of her reckless childhood sweetheart beyond reach in the play which is being produced at the Old Globe Theatre in Balboa Park.

A five week run of "Summer and Smoke" will open Nov. 20 with performances nightly except Monday at 8 o'clock through Dec. 23. Three Sunday matinees are scheduled Nov. 25, Dec. 9 and 23 at 2 p.m.

Special guest star Marion Ross will portray the leading role of Alma Winemiller. Miss Ross has starred in several films and over 400 television shows. She is currently starring in ABC's "Happy Days" which is being considered as a series for this spring.

SDG&E Joins Coal Research

San Diego Gas & Electric said today it was investing $100,000 in the first phase of the new Stone & Webster-Gulf General Atomic Company research program to develop a better method of converting coal to clean fuels.

Stone & Webster Engineering Corporation, a subsidiary of Stone & Webster, Incorporated, and Gulf General Atomic Company, a division of Gulf Oil Corporation, today announced the joint research and development program for an innovative process which can make efficient use of nuclear energy for converting coal into pipeline-quality gas and clean liquid fuels.

By Max Goodwin

Any way you look at him, he's still got masculine charisma.

That would be Bobby Riggs, the unquestioned king of the tennis world—until Betty Jean King dethroned him.

There he was, Saturday night, at a private dinner given by the developers of the 3,200-acre San Diego Country Estates, his mouth and bravado still going strong.

Whatever he said, it sounded like fun. He has a great act at the podium. It could only be improved as a speaking duet with Casey Stengel sharing the honors.

With tennis coming back into popularity (there is an 8-court facility opening in El Cajon this week and a four-court one under construction in Casa de Oro) it was interesting to sit at a table with Earl "Buck" Buchholz, Tony Trabert and Bobby Riggs as small talk was exchanged.

Handsome Facilities

The next day Riggs and other tennis notables played exhibition games that attracted about 500 persons to the courts adjacent the elegant clubhouse and lodge around which is wrapped one of San Diego's most handsome, and certainly the greenest, golf courses.

In the Sunday play Riggs and Dennis Ralston defeated Earl Buchholz and Sven Davidson 7-5; Tony Trabert, tennis director for the club and Ralston defeated Buchholz and Davidson 6-4, and Trabert and Davidson defeated Buchholz and Riggs, 6-4.

Riggs later accepted a plaque for Eleanor "Teach" Tennant of La Jolla for her long service to tennis. She was unable to attend due to illness.

It is hard to believe that 1500-1600 homes and condominiums will be dotting the rolling hills surrounding the golf-tennis-clubhouse facility. Already, several golf course-side homes are under construction. Occupancy is expected to start soon after the holidays. The units are in the $$50,000-60,000 range.

The development is out 11th Avenue in Ramona and is open to public inspection.

Sorority to Sell Books

The San Diego Alumnae Chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi will have a book sale at College Grove Shopping center Saturday 9:30-5:30.

The sale is to benefit the sorority's local philanthropies which include the Arthritis Foundation, Epilepsy Society, Girls Club and Fairhaven School. Mrs. Gary L. Merritt of Clairemont is chairman of the fund-raising event.

Daring Thief

A daring thief walked into the back room of the P & M TV Co., 1029 Elketon st., Spring Valley, and left with a stereo and two speakers valued at $160, owner Paul E. Messenger reported to the Lemon Grove Sheriff's Station. The theft occurred Saturday morning, Messenger said.

'Listening Post' Monday Will Review New EPA Regulations

Congressmen Bob Wilson, Lionel Van Deerlin, and Clair Burgener have indicated they will be in attendance at a special "Environmental Protection Agency Listening Post", 8 a.m., Monday, Nov. 19, in the San Diego Gas and Electric Company Auditorium, Second and Ash.

A member-wide chamber alert, and this event were the immediate reactions from the chamber following attendance at an EPA hearing in San Diego in which Frank Covington, the director of Air and Water Programs for EPA's Western Region, revealed his agency's plans for San Diego.

Covington has been asked to discuss, in detail, the effects the EPA regulations will have upon the community with its local congressmen and their constituents. In addition, the Listening Post will provide chamber members, the press, and the general public, an opportunity to question EPA and state officials.

Larry Wieman of the state Department of Transportation, who announced an alternate to the EPA plan the same week, has also been invited to participate.

Lee Grissom, manager of the Chamber's Planning Division, who attended the EPA hearing, says that the Chamber action is in response to many serious unanswered questions.

"These EPA regulations give the federal government control over many local planning and transportation decisions," he said. "We just want to make sure they know what they've done."

Grissom says that the EPA has invalidated local zoning ordinances, "particularly those regarding parking requirements in industrial and commercial zones; they have retained the final decision on how the parking surcharge funds will be spent; and they insist that local governments will have the responsibility for policing the regulations.

"They also insist that they will need massive cooperation from the public to implement their strategy," he says, "yet they have been totally arrogant to the public when formulating these regulations."

Grissom says that he hopes the Chamber Listening Post will help change the situation. It is open to the general public, free of charge. Grissom calls it an "opportunity to share your feelings about these regulations with your elected officials."

Max Goodwin, Editor
Lemon Grove Review
P.O. Box 127
Lemon Grove, Ca. 92045

Dear Editor,

We have subscribed to your newspaper for over nineteen years and regularly read your Dimmer View column which I find very interesting and informative most of the time.

Your most recent column on the possible Troika at the Top was in line with my thinking too except I have been saying that the time has come for us to have two presidents one for domestic policies and one for foreign affairs. Your idea is even better and I don't think it is farfetched at all.

I know that as an editor and publisher you must be in favor of freedom of the press but I also think that that the press has the responsibility to report the news, all of it, and not withhold items which may be contrary to the editor's or publisher's personal political views.

As office secretary for the San Diego County Teachers Assn., I reeently sent you a press release from my president, George Krowl, giving the SDCTA's stand on Proposition I as being opposed to it. I know you came out in favor of this proposition in your paper and so it did not surprise me too much that you did not publish his statement.

Proposition I succeeded in San Diego County and mainly because the Copley Press and other smaller newspapers such as yours, gave only one side or distorted the truth. Thankfully, the rest of the state must have been better informed by the news media because as you know, it failed.

Though I like you personally, I really get irritated at the way you present your views at election time without giving equal opportunity to the opposing candidates or party. If we are going to preserve our democracy there must be more responsibility by the press to present both sides of an issue.

Sincerely,
Florence Custeau

Cable Television Going Into County

The population of San Diego County is about the same as the State of Nebraska.

Three hours of instructional television programs every school day are now being broadcast on cable television in several San Diego County areas through the facilities of Mission Cable Television, Inc. of El Cajon.

The programs are provided through Educational Communication Services (ECS) at the County Department of Education in cooperation with 17 school districts which have contracted for the service.

Cablecasting is scheduled from 9 to 10:30 a.m. and from 12:30 to 2 p.m. on Channel 4. Programs will reach 233 schools in the San Diego, La Mesa, El Cajon, Lakeside, Santee, Chula Vista, National City, and Imperial Beach areas.

M. Ted Dixon, county superintendent, announced the cablecasting of instructional programs began Monday, Nov. 5 through Mission Cable facilities.

Previously, ECS programs appeared only on KPBS, Channel 15. "Programming on this station will continue as in the past," Dixon explained. "Cablecasting is a supplementary service which will be particularly efftctive in cable TV areas where reception of the Channel 15 signal is more difficult."

Included in the cable schedule are "Inside Out," "Images and Things," "Cover to Cover," "Children of the World," and the locally produced "Magic Carpet" series.

Another locally produced series on the heritage of the San Diego region will be shown. It covers the discovery, exploration, and development of this area from before Father Serra to the present time.

"There is more use of cable television in San Diego County than in any comparable area in the U.S.," Dixon said. "By viewing Channel 4, parents and citizens may see the kind of educational experiences that children receive as part of their televised instructional program."

Plan Now For Summer Jobs

Congressman Clair W. Burgener announces the schedule for application and testing for civil service summer jobs with the federal government for students.

"It is imperative for students to plan now for their 1974 summer jobs. The chances are good that the job market will be very tight next summer and students who take action now will have the better opportunity to have a summer job," Burgener said.

The Civil Service Commission provides up to 10,000 summer jobs across the country. About 8,000 of these jobs are clerical and 2,000 are aides in science and engineering fields.

"There are usually over 100,000 applicants for 10,000 jobs so it is iportant for students to act early if they want to get a job in their locale," Burgener said.

In order to qualify for summer positions, a student must be 18 years old or older or have a high school diploma. Written tests are conducted in order to select specific candidates. The tests will be administered locally in San Diego, Oceanside and Santa Ana.

Those who file by November 23 will be tested between January 5 and 26, while those filing by December 28 will be tested between February 2 and 16. January 25 is the deadline for filing and the last tests will be given between February 23 and March 9.

In order to file, a student should contact the Civil Service Commission in San Diego. The phone number in San Diego is 293-6165.

Rifle Reported Stolen

Theft of a .22 caliber rifle, valued at $70, has been reported to the Lemon Grove Sheriff's Substation by Jacob G. Foreman, 1956 Ensenada, Lemon Grove. The gun was taken during daylight hours Wednesday, Nov. 7.

Wolf Film Screening Scheduled

A one-hour color film entitled "Wolves and the Wolf Men" will be shown at the Lemon Grove Library, 7735 Pacific ave., on Thursday, Nov. 29 at 7:30 p.m.

Legends and superstitions portray wolves as vicious, cunning creatures. This misconception has led to their virtual extinction in the United States, except in Minnesota, where 300 survive, and in Alaska, where a population of 5,000 is quickly diminishing.

However, wolves never attack humans, are essential in the maintenance of healthy deer, moose and elk populations and make friendly, loyal pets.

At present, only a handful of dedicated people, known informally as "wolfmen", are active in the fight to save wolves from wanton destruction by uninformed hunters. It is a race against time, for before man learns the truth about wolves, he may have already condemned them to extinction.

The entire staff of the Lemon Grove Library wishes to encourage all who are interested in this subject to attend the viewing. If there are any questions, the library can be reached by calling 463-5982.

Year Long Daylight Savings Urged To Conserve Energy

Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin, D-San Diego, told a Senate subcommittee last week that prompt implementation of year-round Daylight Saving Time could help head off an energy crisis this winter.

California and most other states reverted to Standard Time Oct. 28. Bills now in Congress would put the country back on DST through the winter months.

Van Deerlin appeared before a Senate Commerce subcomittee chaired by Sen. Adlai Stevenson III, D-Ill., to urge approval of the daylight saving legistlation. The San Diego lawmaker introduced a bill in May which calls for a two-year trial of year-round DST.

"The energy saving potential of year-round DST is far greater than was generally realized just a few months ago," he said, explaining that a recently published study by the Rand Corporation is behind the new public awareness of prospective benefits — and the new demands for Congressional action.

Rand estimated that energy savings from year-round DST would amount to as much as 1.5 percent of total energy needs this winter. Savings would result from extension of daylight for another hour in the late afternoon, thus easing demands for power in both homes and offices.

Van Deerlin said year-round DST also should help reduce street crime and traffic accidents during the winter months.

He noted that Britain found auto accidents and fatalities decreased by nearly 4 percent during a recent test of year-round DST. Criminals would be deprived of some darkness at peak crime hours, Van Deerlin added.

Proposals for year-round DST have been cropping up in Congress for years, but the last time year-round DST was in effect for the United States was during World War II.

"We no longer enjoy the luxury of procastinating on this issue," Van Deerlin concluded in his statement to the Senate panel.

'Living' Xmas Trees Again Scout Project

Again this year, the San Diego County Council, Boy Scouts of America, is sponsoring a "living" Christmas tree drive.

Chuck Smith, council spokesman, said last year's drive was a huge success, with accomplishment of planting a memorial forest at Scout Camp Coochama, near Highway 94.

Purchasers of the trees can use them for the holiday season and then donate them, at their convenience, to the Council at 1207 Upas st. San Diego, Smith said. The trees will be planted at scout camps in Balboa Park, Warner Springs and Cuyamaca Forest, as well as at Coochama.

Special arrangements have been made with Green Pine Acres, Lakeside, to supply the trees at reasonable prices, Smith said. The trees are all Monterey Pines, which are especially suited to the San Diego area climate and are very easy to grow with little care, he added.

Smith said the supply of trees is limited, but that prospective purchasers can go directly to the nursery, at 11264 El Nopal, and tag their selections, which will be held until picked up. The trees are planted for home use in a special container in a light weight planting mixture, suitable for care until transplantation.

Puppet Show Planned

"The Witch and the Wizard", a puppet show, will be presented at the Casa de Oro Library on Wednesday, Nov. 21, 3:30 p.m. The show is free, a presentation of the San Diego County Library Children's Department.

All children are invited to attend. The library is located at 9628 Campo rd., phone 463-3236.

U. S. milk production during August was four percent below earlier levels, marking the tenth consecutive month that milk production has declined.

VFW Teen Dance Dates Changed

The Lemon Grove VFW's regular Teen-age dance will be Sunday, November 25, 7-11 p.m. at the group's hall at 2885 Imperial ave.

The dances had been regularly held on Friday nights but are now on Sunday to avert interference with school activities.

The dances are fully chaperoned, according to Joe Nelson, VFW Dance Chairman. Youngsters who leave the dance for any purpose are not permitted to reenter, he said.

Tickets are free but are only available by personal pickup. Those wanting to know more about the dance rules or arrange to get a ticket should call Sheila Neumeiste at 460-8444 or 465-1992.

Dances are to an eight-piece rock-and-roll band Mrs. Neumeister said.

She also said that contributions are being sought to cover the cost of the monthly dances. Local service clubs are specifically being urged to participate in financing the project.

Free pizza and soft drinks will be provided to the dancers. Participants are restricted to those of 14-17 years of age.

Oh Deer Me: That's A Bull

Apparently, someone did just that, according to a report to the Sheriff's Station by H. A. Gfeller of Jamul. He found the $800 animal wandering around with a yellow hunting arrow protruding from his right shoulder.

The arrow left a six inch wound in the bull's flesh, Gfeller reported.

LG Woman Dies Friday

Soon, there will be another opportunity to improve Broadway. It will be a small improvement by comparison. It will be in the form of a service area landscaping project (Area No. 52). A referendum is scheduled for April, 1974. If it is successful it will make Broadway more attractive — but it won't improve the parking situation.

We suspect there'll be opposition to this, too. Probably this column will publish a list of those for and against it. And at the same time the list will possibly include the names of those who opposed the Broadway alternate plan which reduced the parking by half and then pointed the finger of scorn at the guy who worked the hardest to prevent them from making the mistake they decided to make.

Spring Valley Kiwanians Give MV Key Club A Lift

Spring Valley Kiwanis Club, with president Glenn Munyan in charge, had an active breakfast-meeting Nov. 7 at the Ox Bow Inn.

Assisting the Key Club, Kiwanis youth group at Monte Vista High School, the club turned in many Betty Crocker coupons, as a help in Key Club's Thanksgiving basket program for the needy of the area. A new member of S.V. Kiwanis, Pete Horton, turned in 420 coupons, and other members contributed various amounts.

Bob Cordray, a counsellor at Monte Vista High, who is assisting with the Key Club, said ten baskets will be presented to different Spring Valley families, about Nov. 20 or 21, and a similar program will be undertaken for December.

President Munyan, wrote in the club's publication, "K-Rateions," that "November is an undistinguished month. It is between the times. There is no change of season; school neither begins nor ends; and shorter days lean toward Thanksgiving and a going home. The sap is down, and the bareness of fall seems to imprint itself on the shape of life. This is neither the best nor the worst of times; it is simply a continuation, a tenacious unexcited waiting for next events. November is a time of quietness; there is a stillness of spirit."

Guest speaker at the meeting was Master Gunnery Sgt. (USMC) Tom De Avery, Operations Chief of the Recruiting Regiment of the Marine Corps Depot. He and his family are residents of Lemon Grove.

Sgt. De Avery, speaking on "The Marine Corps Today," said the Corps is in its 198th year. Asking himself the question, "Why do young men join the Marines?" he answered that, "it is a challenge." He said the Corps is qualified to turn men out into the field of technology and business. It also ttaches individuality and respect.

In 14 weeks, De Avery pointed out, the Corps can mold a man to the point where he is proud to be called a Marine. After his preliminary training, a recruit is sent to Camp Pendleton for advanced training and rifle marksmanship. On completion of the 14 weeks, when the men are rated Marines, they are transferred to various stations around the nation.

In answer to a question, Sgt. De Avery stressed the fact that the Marine Corps is recruiting young men, because of a challenge. He concluded that all branches of the service are short of volunteers, but of those who are volunteering 80 per cent are going into the Marine Corps.

Spring Valley Auto Wrecks Injure Four

The Spring Valley Fire Department, for the week of Nov. 5-12, had six fires and 13 ambulance calls.

On Nov. 7, at 2:09 p.m., firemen were called to 4117 Sherwin pl. There, they found that a pan of grease had been left on the kitchen range, had overheated and set afire. The fire damaged the stove and nearby area. Estimated damage was $450 to the dwelling and $150 to contents.

The ambulance had three calls to vehicle accidents on the same day, Nov. 11.

At 11:37 a.m., the ambulance crew was called to Orville and Thaver sts. There, Kenneth Hixson, 33, of 1626 Tarleton, was picked up and hospitalized, after he was hit by a car, while riding his motorcycle.

At 12:45 p.m., the ambulance was called to 8886 Lance ave. Keith Sikes, 10, of 8881 Lance, was picked up and hospitalized, after being involved in a car accident.

At 8:33 p.m., the ambulance went to the 3100 block Bancroft. There, two young persons were picked up and hospitalized after being injured in a car accident. They were Roben Peck, 16, of 10444 Don Pico rd., Spring Valley, and Jeff Kyes, 16, of 3418 Ybarra rd., S.V.

Gas Company Plans Energy Conservation

San Diego Gas & Electric Company has announced it would support the intent of President Nixon's energy message and take additional immediate steps to reduce its own consuption of energy as a public example.

Walter A. Zitlau, SDG&E president, said:

The 50 mile an hour speed limit will be adhered to by the drivers of the company's fleet of more than 1900 vehicles, except in emergencies when life and property may be in danger.

The temperatures in company facilities will be maintained at levels designed to conserve energy.

Greater efforts will be made to curtail all unecessary lighting at all company facilities.

Discretionary travel will be sharply curtailed.

Meanwhile, the California Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors, meeting in San Francisco, called for business community support of the energy conservation program defined by President Nixon in his address to the nation.

Chamber President Benjamin F. Biaggini commented, "Business and industry must take all steps available to conserve energy supplies. While it is in our best interest to do so, we should also set the example for positive commitment to the President's legislative proposals for the general public."

President Nixon requested stand-by authority to ration gasoline and fuel oil, reduce highway speed limits, impose taxes for excessive use of energy and an easing of Environment Protection Agency regulations affecting factories and other stationary sources of pollution. He also called for a long-term conservation policy aimed at making the United States self-sufficient in energy by 1980.
